About DGFASLI and RLI Faridabad

DGFASLI is an attached office of the Ministry of Labour & Employment, Government of India and serves as a technical arm to assist the Ministry in formulating national policies on occupational safety and health in factories and docks. Regional Labour Institute (RLI) at Faridabad is a subordinate office under the DGFASLI and caters to occupational safety and health in factories.

Programme Preamble

A safety committee is a joint worker-management team that assists the employer in creating and maintaining a safe workplace. The aim of the committee is to enhance the ability of workers and employers to resolve safety and health concerns reasonably and co-operatively. It is a well-known truth that factories cannot be successful in preventing accidents without promoting safety and health. Safety committee meetings without a clear purpose can be perceived as a waste of time. Effective Safety committee meetings can play an important role to promote Safety and health culture in Industries

Objective

This programme intends to develop a Safety Culture in the factories with active and joint participation of management and workers.
