About DGFASLI and RLI Faridabad

DGFASLI is an attached office of the Ministry of Labour & Employment, Government of India and serves as a technical arm to assist the Ministry in formulating national policies on occupational safety and health (OSH) in factories and docks. It also advises factories on various problems concerning safety, health, efficiency and well - being of the persons at workplaces.

Regional Labour Institute (RLI) at Faridabad is a subordinate office under the DGFASLI and caters to occupational safety and health in factories.

Programme Preamble

The Micro, Small, and Medium Enterprises (MSMEs) sector is the backbone of India's economy, contributing significantly to employment, innovation, and GDP. However, this sector often faces unique challenges when it comes to Occupational Safety and Health (OSH) standards due to limited resources, awareness, and infrastructure. Recognizing the critical need for enhancing the safety and health standards in MSMEs, this training programme is designed to equip entrepreneurs, managers, and workers with the knowledge and tools to foster a safer, healthier work environment.

Objective

The objective of this training is to raise awareness about the importance of OSH in the MSME sector, identify common workplace hazards, and provide practical strategies for mitigating risks. By adopting best practices, MSMEs can not only ensure compliance with regulatory frameworks but also enhance productivity, reduce absenteeism, and improve worker morale.

Course Highlight

- Overview of the National Policy on Safety, Health and Environment at Workplace
- Understanding the legal framework for OSH in India.
- Identifying common hazards and risk factors in MSMEs.
- Implementing cost-effective safety measures and best practices.
- Developing a culture of safety within the organization.
- Enhancing employee health and well-being through preventive strategies.
