About DGFASLI & Regional Labour Institute, Kanpur

DGFASLI is an attached office of the Ministry of Labour & Employment, Government of India and serves as a technical arm to assist the Ministry in formulating national policies on occupational safety and health in factories and docks. It also advises factories on various problems concerning safety, health, efficiency and well-being of the persons at workplaces. Regional Labour Institute, Kanpur is one of the oldest institutes in India under DGFASLI, Govt. of India, for teaching, training and consultancy in the field of occupational safety and health. It has been functioning since 1963.

Background

No worker should sacrifice his or her life for livelihood. Occupational health, hygiene and safety practices in the industries are of utmost importance for sustainable industrial development. Occupational health research is vital for ensuring workplace well-being. This training program focuses on survey and research methodology, providing participants with essential skills in designing surveys, collecting data, and analyzing results. By combining theory with practical applications, the program aims to empower participants to contribute meaningfully to the improvement of occupational health outcomes and the development of effective workplace safety strategies. Therefore, Regional Labour Institute, Kanpur under DGFASLI Mumbai is providing a training platform for Intended participants.
