Ministry of Labour and Employment, Government of India

HALF A DAY TRAINING PROGRAMME ON SAFETY & HEALTH FOR SAFETY COMMITTEE MEMBERS 6th November, 2020 (10.00 - 13.00 Hrs)

About DGFASLI

We are the DGFASLI an attached office of the Ministry of Labour & Employment, Government of India and serves as a technical arm to assist the Ministry in formulating national policies on occupational safety and health in factories and docks. It also advises factories on various problems concerning safety health, efficiency and well-being of the persons at work places.

Background

Majority of the accidents are primarily caused due to 'human error' which is many times attributed to lack of awareness and lack of the proper safety culture.

Joint labour-management effort is very much essential to prevent unsafe acts of persons and building a safety and health culture in the organization. For ensuring participation of workers in the safety management of organization setting up of safety committees is a legal requirement for many workplaces. This program is intended to help the industry managements in leveraging their productivity through worker participation in safety management and also to strengthen the employer-employee relation through effective participation in safety committee meetings.

Programme Preamble

This program is designed with the objective of raising the Safety and Health awareness amongst the safety committee members and to build up competence in reducing plant and site accidents. This program would provide practical knowledge and guidance for improving the overall safety culture and wellbeing of the people at work.
