About DGFASLI

We are the DGFASLI an attached office of the Ministry of Labour & Employment, Government of India and serves as a technical arm to assist the Ministry in formulating national policies on occupational safety and health in factories and docks. It also advises factories on various problems concerning safety, health, efficiency and well - being of the persons at work places.

Background

The Management of safety and health of workers in industries are vital to the well being of the society and progress of economy. For all areas of human activity, a balance has to be made between benefits and costs of risk taking. Industrial disasters across the world have highlighted the lack of a sustainable safety management system in industries leading to loss of life and limbs of workers and damage to property. The importance of safety being managed like any other company function needs to be appreciated by the company managements for economic progress and social well being and in that the commitment of the executives in promoting safety and health at workplace is vital.
