HALF A DAY TRAINING PROGRAMME ON ROLE OF EXECUTIVES IN PROMOTING SAFETY AND HEALTH IN INDUSTRIES 12th October, 2021 (10.00 - 13.00 Hrs)

About DGFASLI & RLI, Faridabad

We are the DGFASLI an attached office of the Ministry of Labour & Employment, Government of India and serves as a technical arm to assist the Ministry in formulating national policies on occupational safety and health in factories and docks. The Regional Labour Institute at Faridabad is an subordinate office under the DGFASLI and caters to occupational safety and health in factories in the northern part of the country.

Background

Management of safety and health of workers in industries are vital to the well being of the society and progress of economy. For all areas of human activity, a balance has to be made between benefits and costs of risk taking. Industrial disasters across the world have highlighted the lack of a sustainable safety management system in industries leading to loss of life and limbs of workers and damage to property. The importance of safety being managed like any other company function needs to be appreciated by the company managements for economic progress and social well being and in that the commitment of the executives in promoting safety and health at workplace is vital.

Programme Preamble

This program intends to benefit the managements of industries in efficient management of safety and health at workplace through the application of various safety and health management techniques.
