HALF A DAY TRAINING PROGRAMME ON PROMOTING OSH THROUGH WORKER'S PARTICIPATION 17th November, 2021 (14.30 - 17.30 Hrs)

About DGFASLI & RLI, Faridabad

We are the DGFASLI an attached office of the Ministry of Labour & Employment, Government of India and serves as a technical arm to assist the Ministry in formulating national policies on occupational safety and health in factories and docks. The Regional Labour Institute at Faridabad is an subordinate office under the DGFASLI and caters to occupational safety and health in factories in the northern part of the country.

Background

Majority of the accidents are primarily caused due to 'human error' which is many times attributed to lack of awareness and lack of the proper safety culture.

Joint labour-management effort is very much essential to prevent unsafe acts of persons and building a safety and health culture in the organization. This program is intended to help the industry managements in leveraging their productivity through worker participation in safety management and also to strengthen the employer-employee relation through effective participation in safety committee meetings.

Programme Preamble

This program is designed with the objective of raising the Safety and Health awareness amongst the safety committee members and to build up competence in reducing plant and site accidents.

Programme Highlights

- Role of workers in Accident Prevention
- Worker's participation through Safety Committees
- Roles and responsibilities of safety committees
- Legal provisions on safety committees
