

DIRECTORATE GENERAL FACTORY ADVICE SERVICE AND LABOUR INSTITUTES

Ministry of Labour and Employment, Government of India

HALF A DAY ONLINE TRAINING PROGRAMME ON “WORKPLACE STRESS: WORKERS HEALTH” 12th JANUARY, 2022 (14:30 – 17:30 Hrs)

About DGFASLI

We are the DGFASLI an attached office of the Ministry of Labour & Employment, Government of India and serves as a technical arm to assist the Ministry in formulating national policies on occupational health and safety in factories and docks. It also advises factories on various problems concerning health, safety and environment efficiency and well - being of the persons at work places.

Background

Workplace stress is a silent, and oft-neglected, factor which impairs employee health and productivity. It not only affects the workers but also contributes significantly to a decline in a factory's overall success.

Workplace stress occurs in the form of harmful physical and emotional reactions that occur when job requirements do not match the worker's abilities, resources, or needs. Workplace stress can, in turn, lead to poor health and even injury.

Many employees report that they experience work-related stress on their jobs and this compromises their performance and health.

Programme Highlights

Employers should begin to tackle this worrisome concern to create a healthier, safer, and more productive work atmosphere."
