Half-day Online Training Programme on Occupational Health Practices for Nurses & Medical Assistants Working in Occupational Health Centre 17th February, 2022 (10 00 – 13 00hrs)

About DGFASLI & Regional Labour Institute, Kanpur

DGFASLI is an attached office of the Ministry of Labour & Employment, Government of India and serves as a technical arm to assist the Ministry in formulating national policies on occupational safety and health in factories and docks. It also advises factories on various problems concerning safety, health, efficiency and well - being of the persons at work places. Regional Labour Institute, Kanpur is one of the oldest institutes in India under DGFASLI, Govt. of India, for teaching, training and consultancy in the field of occupational safety and health. It has been functioning since 1963.

Background

No worker should sacrifice his or her life for livelihood. Occupational health, hygiene and safety practices in the industries are of utmost importance for sustainable development. The Nurses and Medical Assistants, allied health care workers and paramedical staffs, who are working their best for industrial growth, should be informed, trained and skilled and updated enough for prevention of occupational diseases. They should also be updated with the latest statutory provisions related to occupational safety, health and welfare measures in the Industries and Ports in India.

Therefore, Regional Labour Institute, Kanpur under DGFASLI Mumbai is providing online training platform for Intended participants to learn from their own place using mobile phone/laptop/desktop (with webcam, microphone & speaker) in view of COVID-19 pandemic situation/preventive measures.
