21st June, 2022 (14.30 - 17.30 Hrs)

DGFASLI & RLI Chennai

Directorate General of Factory Advise Service & Labour Institute is an attached office of the Ministry of Labour & Employment, Government of India. This office serves as a technical arm to assist the Ministry in formulating national policies on occupational safety and health in factories and docks. It also advises factories on various problems concerning safety, health, efficiency and well-being of the persons at work places.

The Regional Labour Institute, Chennai, one of the Sub-ordinate Offices of DGFASLI, has been rendering technical assistance and services in the field of Occupational Health, Safety and Environment in the Southern Region. RLI Chennai also organizes training programs, conduct courses on OSH.

Background

Majority of the accidents are primarily caused due to 'human error' which is many times attributed to lack of awareness and lack of the proper safety culture.

Joint labour-management effort is very much essential to prevent unsafe acts of persons and building a safety and health culture in the organization. For ensuring participation of workers in the safety management of organization setting up of safety committees is a legal requirement for many workplaces. This program is intended to help the industry managements in leveraging their productivity through worker participation in safety management and also to strengthen the employer-employee relation through effective participation in safety committee meetings.
