Ministry of Labour and Employment, Government of India

Half day Online Training Program on “Safety in Hot work Operations” 28th June 2022 (10.00 - 13.00 hrs.)

DGFASLI & RLI Chennai

Directorate General of Factory Advise Service & Labour Institute is an attached office of the Ministry of Labour & Employment, Government of India. This office serves as a technical arm to assist the Ministry in formulating national policies on occupational safety and health in factories and docks. It also advises factories on various problems concerning safety, health, efficiency and well-being of the persons at work places.

The Regional Labour Institute, Chennai, one of the Sub-ordinate Offices of DGFASLI, has been rendering technical assistance and services in the field of Occupational Health, Safety and Environment in the Southern Region. RLI Chennai also organizes training programs, conduct courses on OSH.

Background

The industrial activities consist various operations like welding, soldering, cutting, brazing, burning and the use of powder tools. The operations can be a source of ignition when flammable material is present or it can be a fire hazard regardless of the presence of flammable material in the workplace. It may pose various types of risk and hazards to the worker and nearby areas. Therefore, a job safety program needs to be established while carrying hot work operations. This training program is intended to create awareness with regard to hot work operations risk mitigating measures to enhance safety at workplaces.
