Ministry of Labour and Employment, Government of India

Three Days Offline Workshop on Health Surveillance and Safety Practices for Prevention of Occupational Diseases & Injuries 21.09.2022 - 23.09.2022 REGIONAL LABOUR INSTITUTE KANPUR

About DGFASLI & Regional Labour Institute, Kanpur

DGFASLI is an attached office of the Ministry of Labour & Employment, Government of India and serves as a technical arm to assist the Ministry in formulating national policies on occupational safety and health in factories and docks. It also advises factories on various problems concerning safety, health, efficiency and well - being of the persons at work places. Regional Labour Institute, Kanpur is one of the oldest institutes in India under DGFASLI, Govt. of India, for teaching, training and consultancy in the field of occupational safety and health.

Background

No worker should sacrifice his or her life for livelihood. Occupational health, hygiene and safety practices in the industries are of utmost importance for sustainable industrial development. The executives, managers, technical officers, supervisors and workers who are working their best for industrial growth, should be trained and skilled enough to protect themselves and fellow workers from different kind of occupational diseases and injuries. So, knowledge of medical surveillance and safety practices should be imparted to all the stakeholders for better safety and health of all. Therefore, Regional Labour Institute, Kanpur under DGFASLI Mumbai is providing a training platform for the intended participants.

Programme Highlights

- Importance of Occupation Safety, Health and Hygiene in Industries and Ports
