01st – 03rd March, 2023

About DGFASLI & RLI, Faridabad

We are the DGFASLI an attached office of the Ministry of Labour & Employment, Government of India and serves as a technical arm to assist the Ministry in formulating national policies on occupational safety and health in factories and docks. The Regional Labour Institute at Faridabad is a subordinate office under the DGFASLI and undertakes training programs, professional programs, consultancy audits, surveys and studies for promotion of occupational safety and health in factories in the northern part of the country.

Background

Management of safety and health of workers in industries are vital to the well being of the society and progress of economy. Behaviour Based Safety is basically a program designed to influence unsafe actions of workers to achieve safer outcomes, ideally by preventing an accident or injury before it occurs. Implementing a behaviour based safety program is the most comprehensive way for companies to promote safety, eliminate hazards and prevent injuries. When implemented correctly, a behaviour based safety program can provide positive rewards to change unsafe behaviour, reduce job-related injuries, minimize lost production hours, and improve workplace morale.

Programme Preamble

This program intends to benefit the industry managements in factories, docks and construction sites in efficient management of safety and health at workplace through the implementation of behaviour based safety program.
