About DGFASLI & Regional Labour Institute, Kanpur

DGFASLI is an attached office of the Ministry of Labour & Employment, Government of India and serves as a technical arm to assist the Ministry in formulating national policies on occupational safety and health in factories, ports and construction industries. It also advises factories on various problems concerning safety, health, efficiency and well-being of the persons at work places. Regional Labour Institute, Kanpur is one of the oldest institutes in India under DGFASLI, Govt. of India, for teaching, training, and consultancy in the field of occupational safety and health.

Background

Use of different types of Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) has considerably been increased in industries to protect their workers from injuries and accidents as well as to safeguard from various types of hazardous chemicals. Being last line of Hierarchy of control, it is very much understood that the degree of protection by these devices greatly depends on proper use of Personal protective equipment by workmen at the place of work. Proper use of PPEs by worker is very essential for accident prevention during performing operations. Keeping in view of the above, this one-day training program has been designed with the following objectives.

Programme Highlights

- National Policy on Safety, Health and Environment at work place
- Personal Protective Equipment (PPE) – Selection Criteria
- Respiratory and Non-Respiratory PPE – Proper use
- PPE – Care & maintenance
